Dear

The Racial and Violent Crime Task Force was established in August 1999, during the public inquiry into the murder of Stephen Lawrence. Since that time the Unit has been at the forefront of the Metropolitan Police's initiatives for tackling racial and violent crime.

We would now like to extend an invitation to you to attend a special event on 13th October, 1999, to mark our first anniversary. The event whilst centring around a social gathering will have a serious side which will include the opportunity to meet new staff members and to receive up to date briefings on our current work. The event will also provide updates on last year's initiatives and the opportunity to see some of the systems we have developed to provide up to date and relevant intelligence and also to combat race hate mail.

I do hope you will be available and I look forward to seeing you on the night.

Yours

John G D Grieve
Deputy Assistant Commissioner
Director, Racial & Violent Crime Task Force
